

LITTLE MONEY FOR CAMPAIGN

Funds of the Republican Committee Are Getting Quite Low—Bryant Worried.

WANT MORE MONEY

Bryant Is Sure of Victory for the Governor, But Financial Help Is Lacking.

(Special A. D. Dispatch.) Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 25.—Chairman Bryant of the Republican state central committee is much worried over the fact that the funds in the treasury of the committee have run almost entirely out and that unless more money is forthcoming the committee will have to turner out down their expenses and do business on a smaller scale. When the office opened yesterday morning there was but $161 in the bank to draw from and it was not until later in the day that enough came in to assure the running of the headquarters more than yesterday.

Alarming State
In view of the scarcity of funds the chairman ordered many of the girls employed in the mailing room to be discharged not only for lack of funds but also because there was no work for them to do. While the matter is serious both Senators Spooner and Quarles reported to him that they had learned of large purses that were being made up in the northern part of the state and which would help the depleted treasury out.

Confident Of Victory
General Bryant is confident of victory and now places LaFollette's majority at 50,000. This is twenty thousand more than he named three weeks ago and the difference is due to the fact that since the two United States senators have begun their tour they have added the wavering to the republican standard. While the general is confident of victory still he remarks that he would like to see a little bit more money coming in from the politicians about the state.

LaFollette's Tour
The Governor continues his tour of the state and talks of the issues he has most at heart. He has had several rebuffs while trying to implicate prominent politicians into the lines of opposition to his plans without success. At Wausau last night Judge M. A. Hurley answered an inquiry of the Governor's from the stage in a sharp way. State Senator Kreutzer was present at the Wausau meeting and Mrs. Kreutzer entertained Mrs. LaFollette.

RECRUITS WILLING TO SWEAR TO LIES

Are Surprised When Private Blake Refuses to Allow Them to Commit Perjury.

Several instances have come up in the past week which show the peculiar ideas that some men have of Uncle Sam's attitude toward perjury. In more than one case would-be recruits have come to Private Blake to ask to take the examination for enlistment, and after admitting that they are not qualified to enter the army, offer to swear the opposite.

For example, several young fellows have come to him and told him that they had not yet attained their majority, and then are surprised that he will not pass them when they offer to pass their oath that they are over twenty-one.

In another instance a man admitted that he was still married but was suing for divorce, and expected to get it, although the decree had not yet been given. A man who is encumbered in that way is not wanted in the army and the man knew it, but supposed that the recruiting officer would wink upon it if he cared to perjure himself by signing a statement that he was free.

CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. George Sykes Spend the Anniversary Quietly with Their Children.

Fifty years of wedded life have been the happy lot of Mr. and Mrs. George Sykes and their golden wedding anniversary was celebrated by them in a quiet and enjoyable manner at their home, 41 Milwaukee avenue on last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sykes are both natives of England and their wedding occurred at Cambridgeshire, Eng., October 20, 1852. Forty five years ago they came to this country and settled on a farm near this city. Several years ago Mr. Sykes retired from active farming and moved his family into this city.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Sykes are both of a quiet and unassuming nature, devoted to their own home, they have made a large circle of friends whose confidence and affection they enjoy. Both are loyal members of Court street M. E. church, faithful in attendance at all the services and valued because of their ever-ready helpfulness.

Family Reunion
Their wedding anniversary was observed in the same domestic manner which is a characteristic of their lives. A reunion of the family circle, which includes two sons and two daughters was held at their home and the day was a delightful and memorable one to the members of the family. Very few of their friends were aware that so auspicious an occasion was being celebrated, but there are many who will be glad to extend congratulations and best wishes even though the golden wedding day itself is now truly a cherished memory.

COMPLAINTS OVER INTERURBAN ROAD

Patrons are far From Pleased With Some Rules Made by the Management.

Ever since the interurban line began running between Beloit and Rockford complaints regarding the service have been frequent. First people were indignant to learn that it cost almost as much to go to Rockford by the new line as by the railroads. Then they began to find fault with the service that it did not run all night, instead of only during those hours of the day when people in general use the line.

Object To Fares
Now these "kickers" have handed in their objection to the rule that requires passengers to buy their round-trip tickets before they go on the cars if they wish to get advantage of the round-trip rates. The fare from Beloit to Rockford is now only thirty-five cents, with a round trip rate of fifty-five cents.

Wish Conductors to Sell
In order to take advantage of these rates, the tickets must be purchased at one of the regular stations. The patrons of the cars are loudly protesting, and assert that the conductors should be allowed to sell the round fares as well as the single way tickets.

After three hours and forty minutes of deliberation, the jury in the Chicago Masonic temple tax fixing case agreed on a verdict in the trial of Capt. Williams and Luke Wheeler. The result will not be announced until today.

DEMENTED MAN SCARES LONDON

Minister Is Taken for a Russian Assassin with an Evil Intent on King Edward.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)
London, Oct. 23.—While waiting for the King's procession to pass an unknown man thought to be a Russian was captured near St. George's church with two bags of stuff resembling black powder under his arms. The arrest caused a great sensation and it was reported throughout the city that an attempt had been made upon the life of the King. This was however unfounded and the suspect was taken under heavy guard to the Scotland yard for examination.

Man Is Identified
At Scotland yard the man was fully identified as the Rev. George Martin an unemployed church of England minister. He appeared slightly demented and said that he had the powder to blow up the grand stands at St. George's church as he did not think it right to have stands erected on such consecrated ground. He was remanded without bail despite his plea that he had not intended to harm the King.

Little Interest Shown
The parade of the King through the streets creates little interest and the spectators are lined up but two deep behind the guard of sixty thousand soldiers, who are on guard. This being the anniversary of the battle of Balacclava the Light Brigade heroes are on the streets, many of them hardly able to stand in line. To them the King bowed in passing.

Fire in Guild Hall
The Royal party lunched in the Guild hall and hardly had the last person left the building before flames were discovered. No one was injured and the damage was very small. A stop was made at Trafalgar square where the keys of the City of London were presented to the King.

TRINITY CHURCH CLEARS NICE SUM

One Hundred and Fifty Dollars is Realized from the Kirmess for the Organ Fund.

That the Kirmess was a success in its essential features is evidenced by the fact that Trinity church has netted about one hundred and fifty dollars out of the two nights' performances. Last year the entertainment ran for three successive evenings and about two hundred and fourteen dollars' profit resulted. The proportion for each night is higher than that of last year.

For Organ Fund
This sum will be applied to the organ fund, to repair and remodel the present organ which is in use in the church. While those who took part in the entertainment feel that its preparation involved a vast amount of trouble and inconvenience, and the constant drills required grew rather appalling upon some of the younger participants in the dances, everyone feels well satisfied with the ultimate result of the performance. A profit of seventy-dollars a night is considered satisfactory when the expense of the undertaking is considered.

ONE HUNDRED AT BAPTIST DINNER

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE BANQUET.

DISCUSS PHASES OF STRIKE

Prominent Business, Professional and Laboring Men Give Their Views on Strike Problems.

Fully one hundred men of the Baptist church attended the dinner last evening under the auspices of the Young Men's Bible class. The capacious parlors of the church had been tastefully decorated with gaudy oak leaves, and two large flags draped together on the platform where the piano stood.

Long tables, laden with a beautiful assortment of good things prepared by the young ladies of the "Helpful Circle," filled in the four sides of the lecture room where the dinner was served. The same young ladies who had provided the feast, stood ready during the forepart of the evening to serve the appreciative men.

A Great Success
As an experiment the dinner proved eminently successful and all agreed with the wish expressed by the chairman, as he announced that the hour for parting had come, that they might meet together again under the same auspices.

Shortly after seven o'clock Deacon Whitten invoked the blessing of Jehovah upon the assemblage, and for over three-quarters of an hour the men attacked the bountiful repast which had been set before them.

At about a quarter before eight o'clock the men began to push back their chairs and J. C. Stanton, the president of the Young Men's Bible class then rose to introduce the presiding officer of the evening, Mr. T. S. Nolan.

Music by Glee Club
Mr. Nolan in a few gracefully worded sentences acknowledged the introduction, and then requested a song by the Glee club. "All on a Sunday Morn" was so acceptably rendered that an encore was insisted upon. In the second number J. S. Taylor pleasingly took the part of soloist.

Mr. Nolan then opened the subject of the evening. He expressed his regret that President Roosevelt had so thoughtlessly ended the coal strike without awaiting the solution of the problem arrived at during the discussion which was about to begin—"Strikes; Coal and Otherwise."

M. O. Mount
Malcolm O. Mount took up the subject from the standpoint of the employer. That the employer has the same right to combine as the man who hires him, must be admitted from the outset, said Mr. Mount. That the operators are in the wrong in the present strike is generally believed by the public. But it must not be taken for granted that strikes are always right, as is evidenced by the petty complaints which were taken as the excuses for the earlier coal strikes of the years 1890 and '94.

J. C. Osborne
As the vice-president of the Federated Trades Council of this city, J. C. Osborne, was well fitted to discuss the employer's attitude toward the strike question. In leading up to his subject Mr. Osborne quoted a number of figures which indicated the deplorable condition under which the workmen in the coal mines were laboring. Because a increase of twenty cents a ton, which the miners were justified in requesting, was refused it has cost us here in Janesville an increase of four dollars a ton.

Substitute Called Upon
"From the standpoint of the public," was the subject given to Mr. Goldin, who was to have addressed the meeting, but in his absence Mr. Nolan called upon John Cunningham. Although the call was entirely unexpected, Mr. Cunningham was equal to the occasion and responded in an acceptable speech, which revealed the fact that he had thought deeply and logically on the subject. He deplored the greed for gain and the feverish struggle for monetary advancement which influences the country at the present time.

After fixing a time limit of five minutes the chairman threw the meeting into a "free-for-all," and asked Wilson Lane to open the discussion.

"Free-For-All."
Wealth was assailed by Mr. Lane, and the cause of the laboring man ably championed. The influence upon the country of the personality of one man like Mr. Mitchell was extolled as more valuable than all of the coal lands in the country.

Judge Dunwiddie said in response to a demand from the chairman for a word on the subject that capital and labor should work together in perfect harmony and equilibrium. When each is doing the most for the other the two will accomplish the best results.

G. H. Davey then took the floor and severely scored the reluctance of the operators to arbitrate at the call of President Roosevelt. He also took exception to the attitude of one of the earlier speakers who deprecated too great sympathy for the miners.

Challenged Room
Joseph Humphrey made no contribution to the opinions already advanced but "rather than disturb the harmony of the occasion," offered to "fight any man in the room."

As no one seemed anxious to accept Mr. Humphrey's proposition, or to further discuss the strike problem, "The Parson" was called on to close the evening. Rev. Vaughan dealt with his part of the program in ministerial fashion, as he explained, under three heads.

First, Property is a trust. Second, Labor is free and may be disposed of as the laborer sees fit. Third, Brotherhood is the fundamental social law, and should be recognized, as the basis of the adjustment of social difficulties.

Roland B. Molineaux, on trial in New York for the murder of Mrs. Katharine B. Adams, will testify in his own defense.

F. J. BLAKELY WILL RUN SKATING RINK

Captain of the Polo Team Accepts Position of Manager of the Rink.

Fred J. Blakely will be the manager of the skating rink during the coming season, having been prevailed upon yesterday to accept the management. Polo will be the chief attraction at the rink this winter and Mr. Blakely is captain of the first polo team as well as manager of the rink. This team belongs to the Interstate league, which means that the leading polo teams of this section of the country will play here and that Janesville lovers of the sport will have an opportunity of seeing some fast games. The local team will begin its practice at once and will endeavor to achieve its ambition to become the prize team of the league. The fact that Mr. Blakely assumes the management of the rink as well as of the polo team assures clean sport for the patrons of the rink this winter.

FOR NEXT MEETING OF TWILIGHT CLUB

Change of Meeting Place Means Also an Earlier Supper Hour for Members.

In accordance with the plans of the arrangement committee of the Twilight club, the next meeting of this organization will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 18. The subject for discussion at this meeting will be Life Insurance and the leader will be W. F. McCaughey.

This will be the first of the meetings to be held at the Y. M. C. A. building and members of the club are requested to bear in mind that an earlier supper hour has been made possible by the changing of the meeting place from the Hotel Myers. Supper will be served promptly at 6:15 o'clock and the gentlemen are requested to be at the building by that time. One of the great advantages of this earlier supper hour is that it insures an earlier time for the beginning of the program and an earlier hour of adjournment.

SPRAINED ANKLE IN LANDING FISH

Paul Colvin Met with an Accident in His Enthusiasm Over a Pike.

In an effort to secure a large fish which was making a plucky struggle to escape, Paul Colvin met with a painful accident, spraining one of his ankles severely. Doubtless the injury would be more painful than it is had Mr. Colvin lost his fish but he is able to console himself with the knowledge that he landed his fish and to the enthusiastic fisherman this would be compensation for more than a sprained ankle.

The accident occurred on Thursday while Mr. Colvin was engaged in his favorite sport. He was fishing back of Ford's mill and finally succeeded in landing a handsome pike. The pike landed on the shore some eight feet below the embankment, on which Mr. Colvin was seated, having escaped from the hook.

Naturally the fish began to slip back towards its native element and Mr. Colvin, with eyes only for the escaping prize and never counting the cost, scrambled down the embankment, falling in such a manner as to sprain his ankle. He also succeeded in putting an end to the pike's ambitious flight toward the river and consequently memories of his wild leap result in mingled emotions of pain and pride.

RETAIL TOBACCO DEALERS COMBINE

New York Tobacco Men Have Joined to Put Down the Trust.

Packers are anxious to see the 1901 crop change hands a little more promptly, and until it does, it is hardly probable that there will be a general lifting of the present year's crop. No one cares to have two years' packings lying in his warehouse, and very few can afford to do so.

In Cincinnati there seems to be a growing feeling of sympathy toward the union made brands of cigars and tobacco. At any rate the factories which use the label are experiencing a great rush of business. The retailers in that city are doing a good business, and the manufacturers are fully satisfied with the general trend of the market. Jobbers find that the last month has shown an increase in trade, and look for a still greater boom during the next thirty days.

Even the cigar manufacturers are beginning to be affected unpleasantly by the coal strike. Any difficulty in keeping the factories sufficiently warm, will be sure to cause difficulties, especially in many of those factories which employ Cubans and Spaniards, who must be kept warm if they are to do their best work. Complaints have already been made in some quarters, but everybody is making the best of the situation, which it is hoped will be brought to an abrupt termination.

An undeniable quietness prevails in New York retail trade. With the possible exception of a few of the high grade establishments the slump is general, and no reason can be assigned for it unless it be the coal strike. During the last week the depression in that city has been noticeable, and the dealers report that their sales do not average higher than in mid-summer. This is especially disappointing, when everything had pointed to a booming season. For this reason, the developments of the last week in connection with the coal barons, have proved welcome to the tobacco men.

IS WAGING WAR ON COFFIN NAIL

MISS LUCY GASTON, REORGANIZES ANTI-CIGARETTE LEAGUE.

FIGHT AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.

Tobacco Dealers Join Forces Against the Trust—Crop in Sections Damaged on Poles.

Under the efficient leadership of Miss Lucy Gaston, the Chicago anti-cigarette league is doing more efficient work than ever before, and some dealers maintain that it has reached the point where it is to a slight degree affecting the sales. Those who take this view are in the minority and the general understanding is not to take the crusade not at all seriously. The league is making preparations on a large scale for its fall and winter work.

At no time since last spring has the Chicago market been so lively as it is now. Connecticut leaf has a greater demand just now than any other line, and the supply is only great enough to meet the demand with no surplus. Very little desirable Havana can be obtained and the call for that is not great.

Home Grown Havana
In some quarters it is stated that a quantity of the Havana wrapper which is now on the market was grown in Connecticut. The demand in this direction is not as great as for the regular Connecticut lines.

As great vigor is employed as ever in the prosecution of the battle of the Cigarette Union against the American Tobacco trust. The retail druggists' association is the latest addition to the ranks of the union men. The druggists have pledged themselves to make an effort to bring the union made goods before their customers in preference to all other lines.

May Unionize Factories
Rumors are now afloat that the American Tobacco company is considering unionizing its factories, but this is not authenticated. Whether the company intends to take any action against its enemies is not known. It is said that there are 25,000 retail cigar and tobacco dealers in Chicago. All of them will be urged to join the association against the trust. It is intended by the organizers to make it national in scope, and to have the distinctive sign over the doors and places of business generally adopted. At a meeting recently held which was attended by over 500, lengthy resolutions were adopted deprecating the use of prizes by dealers, of billboard advertising, and the use of inferior material by manufacturers who found their profits cut down by the combine.

Fifty Cent Duty Urged.
Dealers in some sections of the country have come out openly for a fifty cent duty on imported wrapper leaf, and assert that the sum is high enough to give all the protection needed to the tobacco industry. Others make the statement that the trade generally is satisfied with the present duties, and believe that any change would prove disturbing element to business as well as regards both the foreign and home grown leaf.

From Pennsylvania the word comes that the tobacco crop has all been harvested. That which was first cut has already cured nicely, with the exception of some that suffered during the rainy periods, but now that cool and sunny days have taken their place, prospects are very favorable for a nice well-colored article of flavor, which will have a ready sale at a good price.

Damaged on Poles.
In quantity the Quaker State buying of the new crop has fallen off considerably, the damage on the poles having no doubt frightened many of the buyers. Whether the market will resume its normal condition after a little or whether the packers will hold off until the goods are all cured down and stripped remains to be seen. A number of farmers have refused to sell their crops on the poles.

At the experimental station in the same state, the canvas cured Sumatra is now fully cured, and in color, fineness, and elasticity is everything that could be wished.

A Philadelphia manufacturer who has seen the result of the curing process thus far, is reported to have offered a large price if the fermentation process goes satisfactorily.

Many New Factories.
During the coming month there is every promise of active business. New factories are starting up on every side, advertisements are appearing of parties who desire to rent factories, and the general atmosphere of a firm and trustworthy market, all augur well.

GOLF EVENTS FOR THIS SEASON OVER

Last Formal Program of the Mississippi Golf Club Was Given Yesterday.

Probably the last program of golf events under the auspices of the Mississippi Golf club, was held at the links yesterday afternoon. Of course individual players will drive the tiny balls over hill and dale as long as their supply of enthusiasm is able to withstand the disagreeable weather which is sure to come with the approaching winter but it is very doubtful if there are any more club events until next spring.

Yesterday afternoon was devoted to approaching and putting contests and there was some excellent golf by the contestants. The first prize was won by C. C. MacLean and his daughter, Miss Belle MacLean and three pairs were tied for second honors. The tie was played off, J. P. Baker and Mrs. F. S. Taggart being the victors.

John A. Dowle was sued yesterday for a total of $1,174 by three Chicago firms. His lace industry was attached.

FOOTLIGHT LASHES

"Sultan of Sulu,"

That famous musical satire, and greatest of all Chicago successes in recent years, "The Sultan of Sulu," written by George Ade, of "Fables in Sling" fame and Alfred G. Withall, the brilliant young composer, will no doubt attract one of the most brilliant and largest audiences of the season when it comes to Myers Grand next Tuesday night.

So many pretty things have already been said of this unique comic opera conception and its humorous lyrics, witty dialogue and tuneful music and such widespread attention was attracted to its remarkably successful run at the Studebaker then-important role of the woman judge advocate, whose legal interference with the former discipline prevailing in the sultan's harem gives rise to most of the heathen potentate's troubles and furnishes many ludicrously funny situations. As Pamela Jackson, Miss Chapman acts as chaperon for the Boston schoolma'am that accompany the military expedition to the island, to Sulu to educate the natives.

Wakeful Jones
One of the distinct types that Mr. Ade has adroitly used for creating fun is that of Wakeful Jones, a commercial traveler from America. In addition to these are the eight ter, Chicago, last spring that the coming engagement can hardly help being regarded one of the choicest musical events that will be seen here this season.

SULTAN KIRAM

Sparkling Libretto

The libretto sparkles with the style of original humor for which Mr. Ade has become famous through his newspaper stories and books. The story for the opera was the actual incidents that occurred at the time the American flag was hoisted over the little island empire ruled by Kiram, the Sulu sultan.

In the music, composer Withall is credited with displaying a humorous appreciation of the many laughable situations devised by Mr. Ade, the score lending itself tunefully to the merry swing of the lyrics.

The production is admitted to be on the extravagant scale that has characterized "King Dodo," "Prince of Pilsen," now the reigning Chicago successes, and everything which Henry W. Savage has produced, the scenery being truly gorgeous and the costumes from designs by designers from artist John T. McCutcheon, the famous war correspondent who was at the battle of Manila with Dewey.

Excellent Company

The company selected by Mr. Savage for adequate presentation of the work, is the same brilliant singing organization that went with the original Studebaker theater production, numbering eighty people. For the proper interpretation of the ambitious score Mr. Savage has supplied his own orchestra of twelve musicians who will travel with the sultan's retinue and be under the direction of Mr. Alexander Spencer.

Funny Old Kiram

Frank Molan, who is described by one Chicago critic as having a funny bone in every joint, will impersonate Kiram, the Sulu sultan. Mr. Ade has placed a generous share of the witticisms and cutting satire of the book in the mouth of his Sulu highness. This rollicking humorous potentate captures the audience with his fund of wit from the moment he observes the cocktail as well as the constitution follows the flag.

Mr. Molan has a capable assistant fun-maker in Fred Frear, in the role of Hadji, the sultan's secretary, who is forced to follow his master to prison and through all his vicissitudes comic opera career.

Templar Sax, the celebrated English barytone, will have the romantic role of Lieut. Hardy, and Robert Lett has the comedy part of Col. Jefferson Budd, an "Arkansas" politician in charge of the volunteers.

The romantic prima donna part for Henrietta Budd is taken by the brilliant star soprano, Maud Lillian Berl, of the last season's "Princess Chie" company.

Gertrude Quinlan, of last year's "Kind Dodo," a clever character actress as well as a beautiful singer, who won her spurs with the Castle Square opera organization, will continue to queen it over the other wives of the sultan in the role of a Filipino soubrette. To her dainty grace and charming personality is due the great success of two of the best song hits in the opera.

LEADING DOCTORS ASSEMBLE HERE

MEETING OF WISCONSIN CENTRAL MEDICAL SOCIETY

IN THIS CITY NEXT TUESDAY

Two Sessions of Profitable Discussions with Social Diversion Over a Banquet.

Members of the committees having in charge the arrangements for the second quarterly meeting of the Central Wisconsin Medical Society, to be held in this city, Tuesday, Oct. 28, have completed their work and everything is now in readiness for the gathering of next Tuesday.

The meeting will be held in the city hall auditorium and will be attended by many of the leading physicians of the state. Dr. N. S. Davis, Jr., of Chicago, will be present and the physicians are anticipating with much interest his paper on the treatment of typhoid fever. Dr. G. V. I. Brown, is another of the noted physicians who will take part in the program.

Interesting Program
Two sessions will be held, morning and afternoon, and all of the physicians of the city and of the county, whether members of the society or not, are invited to be present and get the benefit of the excellent program which has been prepared. Papers will be presented by specialists on different medical questions and the general discussions which will follow are sure to be interesting.

Banquet at Grand Hotel
Between the sessions a banquet will be served at 1:30 o'clock at the Grand hotel. The invitation sent out by Dr. C. S. Sheldon, of Madison, secretary of the association says, "the banquet at the Grand hotel will be a red letter occasion. The dinner itself will satisfy the most fastidious. The responses will be eloquent and inspiring. The singing by the 'Saw-Bones Choir' will make its past record seem insignificant. Dr. Mills has promised a piano and Dr. Evans of Evansville will be expected to practice up the tunes so that he can play them with the spirit and the understanding."

Dinner Directions
Dr. J. B. Whiting will be magistrate at the banquet and the dinner directions are as follows: "To be taken continuously for two hours, well diluted with wit and good cheer." The following responses will be given: "The Banquet of the Central Wisconsin Medical Society," "The Surgeon" and "The Conscientious Physician."

The morning session will begin promptly at 10 o'clock and the afternoon session will follow immediately after the banquet. The following is the entire program:

Morning Session
Paper, Report of Separate Case of Myocarditis. Dr. Albert S. Parker, Clinton. Discussion by Drs. W. H. Palmer, Janesville, and S. R. Meyer, Monroe.

Paper, A Remark on Heart Trouble. Dr. J. M. Evans, Jr., Evansville. Discussion by Drs. Julius Noer, Stoughton, and E. C. Helm, Beloit.

Paper, The Treatment of Typhoid Fever. Dr. N. S. Davis, Jr., Chicago. Discussion by Drs. W. F. McCabe, Beloit, and J. F. Pember, Janesville.

Paper, Report of Case of Compound Fracture of Forearm. Dr. J. E. Allaben, Rockford, Ill. Discussion by Drs. J. A. Jackson, Madison, and D. R. Connell, Beloit.

Paper, The Correlation of Mouth and Nose in Deformity and Disease. Dr. G. V. I. Brown, Milwaukee. Discussion by Drs. N. M. Black, Milwaukee, and J. P. Thorne, Janesville.

Paper, Acute Tonsillitis. Dr. T. N. Miller, Rockford, Ill. Discussion by Drs. A. C. Helm, Beloit, and E. E. Loomis, Janesville.

Afternoon Session
Paper, Puerperal Eclampsia. Dr. S. R. Treat, Sharon, and M. A. Cunningham, Janesville.

Paper, Suppurative Phlebitis with Report of Case. Dr. W. F. McCabe, Beloit. Discussion by Drs. P. S. Markley, Rockford, Ill., and J. C. Cutler, Verona.

Paper, Spinal Concussion. Dr. T. W. Nazum, Brodhead. Discussion by Drs. C. O. Thienhaus, Milwaukee, and L. H. Prince, Palmyra.

Paper, Puerperal Eclampsia. Dr. S. B. Buckmaster, Janesville. Discussion by Drs. C. S. Sheldon, Madison, and W. C. McManus, Edgerton.

Paper, Tuberculosis of the Omentum. Dr. W. H. Palmer, Janesville. Discussion by Drs. W. B. Helm, Rockford, Ill., and Samuel Bell, Beloit.

SISTERS OF MERCY OPEN ANNUAL FAIR

Handsome Booths and Zealous Sales-ladies Are the Attraction at Assembly Hall.

Quite a large crowd attended the opening of the annual fair under the auspices of the Sisters of Mercy of St. Joseph's Convent, at Assembly hall last evening. Although the arranging of the articles which will be on sale by ticket had not been entirely completed, the various booths presented a very attractive appearance. The many handsome articles were displayed advantageously and competent and irresistible salesladies were in charge of each booth.

The crowd had a very merry time although empty pockets were the rule when it came time to depart. The fair will continue through all next week, closing on Monday evening Nov. 3. There will be dancing each evening and some special attraction in the way of a program.

Any lady who desires to dress well, at moderate cost, ought to see the varied and striking novelties shown in our cloak department. T. P. Burns.

FUTURE EVENTS

SHORT NEWS NOTES

Another Railroad Man Moves: Conductor T. Tregawney is arranging to move his family from this city to Milwaukee, where they will reside in the future. Janesville friends regret their departure.

Street is Done: The work of repaving East Milwaukee street from the bridge to Main street is completed and the entire street is open for traffic once more. The new paving is a great improvement.

Over The New Track: For the first time the Madison train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road came in over the new track this morning. The workmen finished laying the rails for the new track in the yards yesterday afternoon.

A Double Blessing: Mr. and Mrs. Ward W. Hager are the proud parents of twin daughters and they feel that they are doubly entitled to the congratulations of their friends.

Football Accident: Frank Grove, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grove, of 205 Pearl street, broke his arm and suffered other injuries while practicing football in a field near his home. The accident occurred in a scrimmage in which the entire team was engaged.

A Funny Hog: A red-haired hog which was shipped to J. B. Humphrey from Whitewater attracted its full share of attention where it stood this afternoon in its crate in front of the express office. One of the admiring young ladies who stopped to gaze at the freakish looking animal went so far as to term it "too sweet for anything."

Church Enjoyed Social: There was a large attendance at the picnic supper given for the members of Court Street M. E. church and congregation in the church parlors last evening. The ladies met at the church for work in the afternoon and at six o'clock supper was served, the gentlemen joining the company of ladies. An enjoyable social session followed the supper.

Railroad Officials Here: Several of the officials of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. were in the city yesterday to inspect the improvements being made by the company. The party consisted of Assistant General Manager W. J. Underwood, Assistant General Superintendent D. L. Bush, General Roadmaster J. P. Holland and Superintendent P. C. Eldredge and their tour of inspection also included the Mineral Point division where considerable work is being done.

Dr. Richards, the dentist, will return from his vacation Nov. 1, and may be found at his office thereafter.

Chicago Record-Herald: J. Pierpont Morgan jumped to escape from a runaway horse in New York the other day. The horse should be exhibited as the only thing on earth that Mr. Morgan can't control.

BANNER IS GIVEN TO LOCAL LODGE

PRESENTED OLIVE BRANCH LODGE NO. 38, A. O. U. W.

CELEBRATION LAST EVENING

Program of Address Is Followed by Card Games and an Oyster Supper.

Formal presentation of the prize banner, recently won by Olive Branch Lodge No. 38, A. O. U. W., for having the largest membership of any lodge of the order in the state, was made last evening in the presence of the lodge members, the Degree of Honor and their families.

When the lodge meeting has proceeded as far as the good of the order, the doors were thrown open to the ladies and the program of the presentation ceremonies was begun. E. F. Schumacher, master workman of the lodge presided and with him on the platform sat the guests of honor, Grand Recorder F. M. Givens, of Fond du Lac; Master Workman A. E. Hall and Recorder C. B. Page, of Gem City lodge of Baraboo, and Past Grand Master Workman J. M. Thayer, of this city.

Banner Presented

The handsome banner was presented by Mr. Thayer, who stated that he was the only grand officer that had ever had the honor of making the presentation. The duty had seemed to follow him and it was a special pleasure on this occasion. He gave a brief history of the banner which was first procured five years ago as the result of a suggestion made by Grand Deputy M. J. Dougherty after he and Mr. Thayer, then grand master workman, had succeeded in building up Baraboo lodge. It was won first by Baraboo lodge, then by the Janesville lodge and then by Baraboo again and then by North Star lodge of Superior from whom it has just been taken by Olive Branch lodge. The speaker urged the members of the lodge to renewed zeal if they expected to retain the banner, to rally around it at the regular meetings and to keep it unspotted from disregard of the principles which it represents.

E. F. Schumacher accepted the banner in a few well-chosen words, pledged his efforts to keep it unspotted and to retain it and urged the members to assist him.

Words Of Praise

F. M. Givens, the General Recorder, then made a brief address, praising Olive Branch lodge and its officers, eulogizing J. M. Thayer, whose name was always connected with the lodge in his thoughts and telling something of the work which Mr. Thayer had done for the order. He warned the members that they must be energetic if they wished to keep the banner an appeal to the Degree of Honor to assist them. He then referred to that fact that the 27 of this month is the anniversary of the institution of the order which was born in Mendonville, Pa., with fourteen members and now has a membership of 410,000. In the 31 years it has paid $120,000,000 to widows and orphans. He urged members to attend lodge meetings and emphasize the fraternal side of the order, closing his address with a poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Challenge From Baraboo
C. H. Page and A. E. Hall, both made brief addresses, throwing down the challenge in behalf of the Baraboo lodge, which expects to win the banner next time. Both men also paid high tribute to J. M. Thayer, as did J. J. Cunningham, who was called on for remarks. Indeed quite a boom was started for the election of Mr. Thayer as grand master workman, a position which he held for many years.

Mr. Thayer expressed his appreciation of these remarks and his willingness to serve at the head of the order once more if it was desired. Mrs. Philip Ohlweiler, chief of honor, of the Degree of Honor, was called on and made a few happy remarks, closing with a poem.

Progressive Climb

Although it was a late hour when the meeting adjourned, those present lingered for a social session, finding pleasure at the card tables where progressive climb was the attraction. The first prizes, a silver mounted curling iron and a match safe, were won by Mrs. Willis Taylor and Philip Ohlweiler. Much amusement was occasioned by the consolation prizes, Mrs. William Buob receiving a miniature pair of shoe soles "for do feet" and Archie Griewold a Filipino baby "our own make."

Oyster Supper

And elegant supper with sandwiches and coffee was served by the ladies of the Degree of Honor under the direction of Mesdames E. F. Schumacher, M. J. Conroy and Ed. Klenow. The A. O. U. W. committee which had charge of the entire entertainment was E. T. Schumacher, Michael Daly and George Robinson.

JOLLY TIME FOR SOCIAL CLUB

Afternoon and Evening Devoted to Sociability, Supper and Cards
Members of the America Rebekah Social club enjoyed their regular monthly meeting at East Side Old Fellows' hall Thursday afternoon, spending the time in a most enjoyable manner. At six o'clock they were joined by the gentlemen and an elegant supper was served. After supper the evening was devoted to card playing and everyone had a jolly time. The officers of the Social club are Mrs. Frank P. Starr, president; Mrs. Leslie Holmes, secretary; Mrs. L. M. Nelson, treasurer. Regular meetings are held on the last Thursday of each month and these meetings are anticipated with pleasure by the members.

FOOTBALL GAME PLAYED TODAY

JANESVILLE AND BRODHEAD HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS MEET.

CONTEST AT ATHLETIC PARK

Both Teams Have Enviably Records of Victories Already Gained This Season.

Football eleven from the Brodhead and Janesville High schools are contesting for gridiron honors at Athletic park this afternoon. In weight the two teams are about even, the local aggregation probably having a slight advantage. Both schools have conducted themselves with honor in the contests they have entered so far this season, and every man in each organization, has come determined to die fighting.

Good Record

Monticello succumbed before the visitors of this afternoon under a score of 23 to 5 against them, while the Stoughton men were routed to exactly the same tune. Brodhead tied with Evansville in a close contest in which neither goal line was crossed, and they were taken into camp by the Monroe eleven.

Janesville played Whitewater a tie game, administered the knock out blow to Evansville by a score of 10 to 0, and laid it over Fort Atkinson, a team that is generally counted as one of the strong high school aggregations.

The two teams lined up as follows:

PHONE LINE TO BE SOLD ON MORTGAGE

Notice of Foreclosure Served on the Badger State Long Distance Company.

At the meeting of the directors of the Badger State Long Distance Telephone company, held at the Hotel Myers yesterday afternoon, notice was served on the directors that foreclosure proceedings had been begun by the German-American Bank, of Milwaukee, which holds the mortgages against the company.

The directors have been dissatisfied with the financial management of the telephone company's affairs and there has been considerable discussion over important changes to be made. As a step in this direction, it was practically decided to let the foreclosure proceedings go on, the stockholders to purchase the property at the time of the sale. The stockholders believe heartily in the company as an investment and many are willing to increase the money which they have invested. They are determined, however, that the business must be conducted on a different basis than the past.

AN EASY GAME FOR WISCONSIN

Badgers Run Up Against a Soft Snap—
Chicago Against Illinois—
Other Contests.

With the exception of the Badgers, none of the big schools run up against "dead sure" propositions today. In almost every case a reversal of any score from that which is commonly expected, would not be viewed with surprise. Even if a team that has covered itself with glory up to this time, should fall down under an innumerable defeat, it would hardly cause any remark.

Perhaps the Chicago-Illinois battle should be classed as the most interesting contest which will be played off on the western gridiron this afternoon. During the past week the Midwayites have been tutored in speed, and speed alone. If they show up with a strong defense today, it will be because they had it before, not because it has been developed since their last game. The Illinois believe that they have the team to give Stagg's men a run for their money. And they may be right. Against the Haskell Indians their defense made good in an astonishing degree, and it is generally admitted that their backs are a fast combination for straight football.

Badgers Meet Kansas
Wisconsin's meeting with Kansas can hardly be regarded more than a good practice game. "Art" Curtis, as coach for the Sunflower team, has done wonders with the material given him, and he is sufficiently familiar with the Badger style of play, after four years of it himself, to coach a team to meet it. The only point for speculation on the contest is the size of the score run up on the westerners.

Two thousand rooters will accompany Ohio State university's aggregation of pigskin fighters to Ann Arbor, and will support them with their last cubic inch of lungs, and their last cent of currency. No conference eligibility rules disturb the peace of mind of the Ohioans, and they play whom they choose. Perry Hale, the Yale half-back, who is coaching the invaders in Yost's territory, says that after the Notre Dame game of last Saturday he believes that his men can do as they please against the Wolverines. Coach Yost, as usual, coincides with these opinions, doing his best to give the impression that he has a piny bunch of men.

WELSH IS NO LONGER USED

Churches Have Abandoned That Language Throughout United States, Using English Instead.

A petition was filed in Common Pleas court No. 2 yesterday for the dissolution of the Welsh Congregational Association of Western Pennsylvania, an organization composed of Welsh Congregational churches for the carrying on of mission work. It explained that during recent years that so many of the former Welsh churches had abandoned the use of the native language and had adopted the English that it was practically useless to continue the association as a Welsh organization. In consequence, a new organization of the old churches was completed a few months ago and the work was continued the same as before, but not as a Welsh body.—Pittsburg Post.

The Working-Fighting Phalanx
By George Howard Gibson.
Of fraternal deeds sublime
Spread the fame o'er all the earth;
Sing, ye may, of manhood's prime,
Sing of Brotherhood's great birth;
Give the loyal miners' meed of matchless worth.

Hardest pressed on either hand,
Firm in fellowship they stand,
Steadfast, grand!

Front and rear divided far,
Mining comrades fight as one;
Workers all with strikers share,
While the greatest deeds are done,
Manhood thus its march of triumph has begun.

Strikers feel, their strength renew;
Want and fear can ne'er subdue
Comrades true.

Herald far the phalanx plan,
Organize with greatest zeal,
Put to proof the Social Man,
Catch the thrill that comrades feel,
Strike together, and the mightiest throne shall reel.

Corporate rule must pass away;
Comradeship's restless way
Comes, to stay.
Over all the names we know,
Glorified by battle's rage,
Mitchell's and his men's shall show.

On the far historic page,—
First as brothers, bringing in the golden age.

They in sharing showed the poor
How to enter freedom's door,
Barred no more.

The fact that all women suffer during the birth-hour leads a great many women to accept a degree of suffering which is altogether unnecessary. Sometimes it is hours, sometimes days before the struggle is over. No medicine can absolutely eliminate pain from this time of travail, but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can and does make the baby's advent practically painless. It acts upon the organs of maternity, giving them strength and elasticity. It produces physical comfort and mental cheerfulness. It is an effective tonic, giving the mother abundant nutrition for her child.

"I believe I owe my life to Dr. Pierce's remedy, and have long felt it my duty to acknowledge the benefit I received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets,'" says Mrs. Maria O. Hayzel, writing from Brooklyn, N. C. "Six years ago, after the birth of one of my children, I was left in a weak, run-down condition. My health seemed utterly gone. Life was a burden. I consulted with three different physicians and got no relief. I began to get worse, and to add to the complications, I suffered terribly from constipation. I chanced to see one of your advertisements and concluded to try the above remedies. I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and began to improve right away, and continued improving and gaining in strength. I cannot express the relief it was so great. Seven months later my little daughter was born without much trouble. I feel that I would never have been able to endure my confinement only for the help due solely to Dr. Pierce's medicines. She was a fine, healthy child, and the only one I have ever been able to nurse."

SPLENDID REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT.

130 LOTS IN THE SPRING BROOK ADDITION ARE OFFERED TO HOME BUILDERS AND WISE INVESTORS. A LIMITED NUMBER WILL BE SOLD AT $250 EACH, TO EARLY PURCHASERS.

This Price is as Low as when the Addition was first platted, before any improvement was made on the property, and will be advanced at an early date. Small Payment down, balance on easy monthly installments insures a cheap home.

SPRING BROOK ADDITION THE PLACE OF ACTIVITY.

The Factories that have already been built and those now in the course of construction bring many families to this locality. There are, in fact, now a number of Families Unable to Secure Houses in This Part of the City.

The Cement Post Factory, which will commence operation soon, Hough Porch Shade Factory, now building, The Potato Flake Factory which opens soon will bring many new people here. The Choate Hollister Furniture Factory, P. Hohenadel Jr. Canning Factory, Pearl Button Factory, Conrad Tobacco Warehouse, Electric Power House, Knickerbocker Sand Refining Institution are all active and give work to many hands.

AS AN INVESTMENT.

The lots are sure to double in value within a short time. The improvements, such as the city schools, city water, electric lights; both of the electric car lines, both of the railroads, many of which have been made in the past year, enhance the value of the property many times, and mind you, the price of lots is the same as before the improvements were made.

AS A HOME PROPOSITION.

There is not a spot in the city more desirable or easier to acquire a home in than Spring Brook. The price of lots and installment plan for payment brings the purchase easily within the reach of anyone. I stand ready to aid any worthy man to build a home of his own; an offer that should be considered seriously. I shall be glad to give any information desired to those calling on me at the 'Thoroughgood factory'. An investment at home where you can know personally of the value, where you can watch the value increase is far ahead of the get rich quick schemes. John Thoroughgood.

MONDAY CLUB IS TO BEGIN YEAR'S WORK

Miss Kellogg, of Madison, Will Give Her First Lecture Next Monday Evening.

On next Monday evening Miss Louise Phelps Kellogg, of Madison, will give her first lecture on 'The Renaissance and the Reformation before the members of the Monday club and all interested women. The lecture will be given in the parlors of the Congregational church, beginning promptly at 7:30 and will include a description of the condition of Europe about the middle of the 15th century. The meaning and application of the term Renaissance will also be explained. Although this will be the first time that Miss Kellogg has personally directed the work of a Janesville history class, it is not the first time that she has been connected with the study of the local clubs. The program of the four years' course in General History which is proving so enjoyable and profitable to the Woman's History class was made out by Miss Kellogg.
